1 Vision, mission and values

Vision

People on the island of Ireland who are empowered to eat healthy and safe food.

Mission

To contribute to public health and well-being, by promoting food safety and healthy eating on the island of Ireland.

Values

In achieving our vision and mission, we aim to

- be trusted by consumers
- be respected and valued by our partners
- offer a fulfilling place of work to our employees.

2 Purpose of Customer Service Charter

The Customer Service Charter sets out the standard of service and behaviour that should reinforce our interactions with all our customers across the island of Ireland. This standard of service is what you, as a customer, can expect to receive when you contact safefood.

safefood's customers include each person across the island of Ireland, in both a public and professional capacity.

3 Our commitment to you

It is important for safefood to provide a high quality, fully accessible service to our customers.

We will

- Respond to you promptly, efficiently and to the best of our ability.
- Give you relevant and understandable advice, providing clear and accurate information.
- Be polite and fair in our dealings with you, while always remaining impartial and sensitive to your request.
- Ensure that your rights to equal treatment are upheld as set out in equality legislation.
- Meet any specific needs or requirements that our customers may have.
- Protect the personal information you give us.
- Inform you of your rights and entitlements as appropriate.
- Provide a process for you to make a complaint about our service. safefood will do our very best to put things right if we have made a mistake and will try to resolve your complaint fully.

4 Help us to help you

We value your opinion

You can help us to improve by providing feedback. Your feedback might be a compliment, a suggestion, a concern or a complaint. safefood welcomes all feedback.

- We will use this feedback to help us give our customers the best possible service.
- We also ask for feedback from time to time, by inviting you to take part in surveys. If you choose to complete a survey, you will be providing safefood with valuable information to improve our communication and services.

5 Communicating with us

safefood enjoys a very positive relationship with its customers and clients and respect issues rarely arise. Nonetheless, as part of our duties as an employer, we remind customers that you are obliged to treat safefood staff, and anyone providing services on our behalf, with respect, courtesy and consideration. Our staff have a right to dignity in their working life. Any form of aggression, bullying, harassment or discrimination will not be accepted, and we reserve the right to take appropriate action should the necessity arise.

11 Data protection

The Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003 and the European Union's General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) apply to safefood.

The Data Protection Acts protect the privacy of individuals whose personal data is being processed.

"Personal data" means information relating to a living individual who can be identified from the data itself or in conjunction with other information held.

safefood will abide by our privacy statement and data protection policy. These are published on our website.

We will not disclose information about a customer without the customer's consent, except as permitted or required by law:

- to safeguard the security of the State
- to prevent, detect or investigate offences, or apprehend or prosecute offenders
- to assess or collect any tax, duty or other moneys owed or payable to the State
- in the interests of protecting the international relations of the State
- urgently, to prevent injury or other damage to the health of a person or serious loss of or damage to property
- by or under any passing of legislation, or by a rule of law or order of a court
- to obtain legal advice or for the purposes of, or during, legal proceedings in which the person making the disclosure is a party or a witness.

safefood seeks explicit "opt-in" consent from the customer to receiving communications about our activities, and other marketing initiatives. This means your consent must be a freely given, specific and informed explicit action, made in response to a clear and understandable notice regarding the collection and use of personal data for marketing purposes.

Customers can withdraw their consent to the further collection of their personal data, and "opt out" of receiving marketing communications, at any time. Our communications will clearly notify your right to opt out, and how to do this.
